2. Using the Internet, library or any other available resources, further research your assigned case. Be sure to include the following information:

 - Where the chain of custody was broken or caused complications
 - How evidence was mishandled
 - How it effected the case
3. Using your research, create a Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation consisting of at least ten content slides discussing the case in which chain of custody problems were involved. You should also include at least two additional slides for the title and reference slides, not included in the ten content slides. Graphics should be incorporated.
4. Share your presentations with the class and be prepared to answer questions.
