

Historical Leadership

Directions:

1. In a group of two to three, select a famous leader in history.
2. Get approval from your instructor prior to beginning any research. This will eliminate any two groups from reporting on the same leader.
3. Using the internet, library or any other materials available, research the various leadership qualities your selected individual possessed.
4. Create a Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation which includes following:
  - What qualities did it takes to be an effective leader during the time
  - Background information of your leader
  - His or her leadership style
  - The actions and qualities which make your leader the described style
  - Interesting facts which show why your leader was a good or bad leader
5. Remember to use what you have learned from the presentation to help guide the presentation.
6. Be sure to include a works cited page of any information used.
7. Present your findings to the class and be prepared to answer questions.
