

Compliance or Violation

Directions:

Determine whether the following scenarios are a violation of or are in compliance with the United States Constitution and label them accordingly, being sure to include the constitutional amendment related to the situation.

1. Hershel was forced to move from his farm, because a highway was being built. He was paid a reasonable price for the farm from the government, but still struggled to find a new home.

2. Officer Daryl pulls over a woman for a routine traffic ticket, but he is in a bad mood so he decides to search her car to inconvenience her further.

3. Laurie was arrested for some very minor traffic violations. Her bail was set unreasonably high at $500,000 which she will not be able to pay, so she will have to remain in jail until her hearing.

4. After listening to an entire criminal trial, the jury decides the defendant is guilty solely based on the fact that she did not testify at trial.

5. Rick is about to stand trial, but he does not know what the charges are against him.

6. Negan has been held in jail for three years without a trial.

7. Keisha committed a crime in New York, but the punishment for the crime is harsher in Georgia, so the prosecutor organizes her case to be transferred to Georgia.

Compliance or Violation

8. Tyrell has selected a series of witnesses to examine which will attest to his client's innocence.

9. Though new evidence was found to convict Phillip after he was tried and found innocent, the prosecutor did not pursue a new trial.

10. Sam cannot afford a lawyer, but the state appoints him one.

11. Officer Carol got a warrant to search a house, however she suspects the house next door is also involved in the crime she is investigating. She might be able to fool the neighbors into letting her search the house, but decides to get an additional warrant for each specific address.
