

Biographies in Science

Directions:

1. You will be assigned a key historical figure in the world of scientific discovery.
2. Research your key figure and develop a biography for the person.
3. Develop a written paper or a Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation which details the person's biography.
4. You will present your project to the class. Be sure to dress appropriately for your presentation.